

POWER DISTRIBUTION TRAINER

Overview

The Power Distribution Trainer is a combination of physical models of power busbars and switchgears. It allows investigate the control mechanisms of different buses and investigate the system behavior in case of different emergency situations.

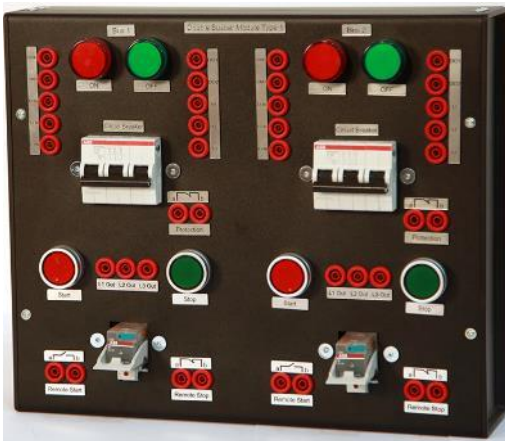

YouTube Link: https://youtu.be/6c_LpRPpido

Topics covered

- ✓ Substation structure and layout for power distribution
- ✓ Electrical loads of consumers
- ✓ Switching operations in substation when changing the scheme of power distribution
- ✓ Protection of the distribution substation in case of emergencies

Power Distribution Trainer Hardware Pictures

Power Distribution Trainer Software Screenshots

